Welcome back to the Arnside Broadsheet after an 18 month pause during the pandemic. Now that activities and events are restarting in the village, we plan to return to monthly production and distribution starting with this issue. As more activities start, we hope the broadsheet will fill with even more events to enjoy.

A warm welcome to all the new residents who have moved into the village. The broadsheet is produced and distributed monthly by volunteers. It promotes clubs, societies and activities as well as events in Arnside and the surrounding area.
